

Business Process Follow-ups should be completed as early as possible in the spring, while providing management sufficient opportunity to make the recommended changes. This provides Academic Affairs management the opportunity to include the results in the annual evaluation process.

At the Audit Committee's request, additional follow-up visits may be completed until satisfactory progress is achieved.